VERMONT ELECTION.

The results of the elections is that State on the 2d inst, are of a most cheering, character, the 2d inst, are of a most cheering, character, they are indeed glorious. It was difficult to diagnage the cause of freedom in that state from the meshes of whig policy, but that work is now done. The liberty vote in 1840 was 139; in '141, 1794; in '142, 2011. This decline was produced by a local and temporary cause. In '43 and rot wo was '1766; in '44, for Governor, 5,618; for Mr. Birney, 5,970. This falling off was dure the result being of whig fraud, and from the results of this, year they can judge whether 'thonesty is the best policy' or the state of the best of the state of the st

Self Marriage.

A couple had been living together, as man and wife, in Philadelphis, fur some time.—
The gentleman—perhaps becoming tired of the incumbranes—refined to support his reputed wife. She instituted a suit to obtain her was, that they were not long. The defence was, that they were not long. The defence was, that they were not long. The defence had been defented to the marriage coremony; but that the parties acknowledged themselves nan and wife in the presence of witnesses.—
This Judge Surgent decided to be legal marriage of the support of his wife. With this decision the lusband refused to comply, and was imprisoned for contempt of court. He was subsequently brough hefore the court, backed by an extraordinary combination of legal tulent, purpose; the judge was incromble.

The decision is not new. This interpretation of the law was nestablished in England many years ago, and a law providing for marriage in this form was adopted in South Carriage in
